時間會改變一切
所以，對別人真的要好一點....
